Identify two respondents who will each provide a letter of recommendation related to your application. To do so, indicate the contact information for both respondents. When you save this section, your respondents will automatically receive an e-mail to advise them that you have requested a letter of recommendation from them, along with instructions on how to send the letter.

Important: Respondents must submit their letter of recommendation via FRQnet by the competition deadline. Otherwise, your application will be deemed ineligible.

Check whether your respondents have an active FRQnet account and enter the e-mail address linked to each account. Respondents who had a Fonds de recherche du Québec PIN may use it to access the new FRQnet system and activate their account. It is important to enter the address that is linked to the account so that your respondents may retrieve the letter of recommendation that they must fill in. If one of your respondents does not have an account, enter his/her business e-mail address to create an account from which he/she will be able to access the letter of recommendation form.
